On the first day God created the dog. God said, "Sit all day by the door of your house and bark at anyone who comes in or walks past. I will give you a life span of twenty years." The dog said, "That's too long to be barking. Give me ten years and I'll give you back the other ten."

So God agreed.

On the second day God created the monkey. God said, "Entertain people, do monkey tricks and make them laugh. I'll give you a twenty-year life span." The monkey said, "Monkey tricks for twenty years? I don't think so. Dog gave you back ten, so that's what I'll do too, okay?"

And God agreed.

On the third day God created the cow. "You must go to the field with the farmer all day long and suffer under the sun, have calves, and give milk to support the farmer. I will give you a life span of sixty years."

The cow said, "That's kind of a tough life you want me to live for sixty years. Let me have twenty and I'll give back the other forty."

And God agreed again.

On the fourth day God created man. God said, "Eat, sleep, play, marry and enjoy your life. I'll give you twenty years."

Man said, "What? Only twenty years? Tell you what, I'll take my twenty, and the forty the cow gave back, and the ten the monkey gave back, and the ten the dog gave back, that makes eighty, okay?"

Okay," said God, "You've got a deal."

So that is why the first twenty years we eat, sleep, play, and enjoy ourselves; the next forty years we slave in the sun to support our family; the next ten years we do monkey tricks to entertain the grandchildren; and the last ten years we sit on the front porch and bark at everyone.

Life has now been explained to you.

For those who missed the Morningside Games Closing Ceremony's here is our anthem song, to the tune of Edelweiss.

Morningside, Morningside
Bright little village of caring
Kinship tied
By hope and pride Days full of laughter and sharing.

Sharing life's joys and the sad times too
And coming through together
Morningside, Morningside
God bless these friendships forever.

Upcoming Social Events for 2017

The Entertainment Committee will be meeting soon to organize the Tentative Social Calendar for Morningside for 2017. Letters have already gone out to those people who kindly hosted events for 2016 to see if they were going to continue to host for 2017. It is through their time and energy that offers Morningsiders such a divergent amount of activities that keep us together as a community.

If you have not hosted anything but would like to give it a try and have an idea for something new, then please contact me and we will put you down for 2017. The Entertainment Committee is here to support you in any way we can. Having new events and ideas keeps us interested and allows us an opportunity to try new things.

What makes it special living here is the amount of participation that we get involved in, in order to get to know each other better and with that a better sense of community. If you have been cocooning, then come out and join in the fun of the numerous activities being offered.

A NEW SCAM TO LOOK OUT FOR

A person might call you, supposedly from you bank, to tell you that your Charge Card is being used in another country, they will even give you a fictitious $$$$ amount. This person will give some reason for you to give them your credit card number, for verification. DON'T DO THIS. Banks will never ask you for your Visa card number over the phone.

Map Quest or Google Maps really need to start their directions on # 5. I'm pretty sure I know how to get out of my neighborhood.

I disagree with Kay Jewelers. I would bet on any given Friday or Saturday night more kisses begin with Miller Light than Kay.

How many times is it appropriate to say "What?" before you just nod and smile because you still didn't hear or understand a word they said?

Another Good day is being planned for Morningside on Saturday, October 8th from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 like last year we will have the display on the putting green.

We are displaying and selling our home grown pumpkins, other garden vegetables and apples. This is being planned as a family day so we hope to see you there, perhaps with your kids and grandkids.

Besides produce we hear the ladies will have baked goods from the oven and preserves.

We will also have a free drink of apple cider for everyone.

This is always a great success so come out and support us: hope to see you on October 8th.

LIVING WITH DEPRESSION

MJ BROWN

This is probably not the type of article that you expected to find in our monthly Newsletter. Media reports in the last several months talked about teens suffering from mental issues causing suicides, self-mutilation, anxiety etc. In one Ontario high school the students walked out demanding more help to deal with mental issues and I felt that it was time to bring to the forefront that it is not only teens facing this crisis. It is seniors as well.

I was first diagnosed with depression a little over 7 years ago. When I first went to the Doctor I really did not know what was wrong except that certainly something was. I was lethargic, starting to isolate myself from friends and just generally happy to stay at home. His diagnosis was correct and with a prescription in hand I headed off home sure that everything was going to be good. And it was for about 5 years. Then the changes in my behaviour started again.

I withdrew from most of the activities in the village that I had enjoyed for years and just sat at home. Eventually I dropped out of everything – even golf and darts which I loved. The next step in my decline was that I started to ignore and cut off my closest friends – I didn't understand why and neither did they. Eventually they stopped calling as they thought I was mad at them for some reason. I finally realized I was spending 15 to 18 hours a day in my bed and not joining in the outside world at all.

I am very fortunate to have a family Doctor who listens to me and takes what I say seriously. I left his office with a prescription in hand and 3 days later I was able to see a light at the end of that long dark tunnel. After dealing with that tunnel I “came out of the closet” and started talking openly about dealing with depression. It has certainly helped me by being open about my situation. It has been a long struggle and not an easy one. There are major bumps and some setbacks in the road that will always be there. I just have to learn how to recognize and deal with them as I will be living with depression for the rest of my life.

In our village of about 500 people I am sure that I am not the only person dealing with depression. Do not walk that long dark road alone. Grab a friend, climb out of the hole and start walking together in the sunshine.

A Note from the Entertainment Committee

I have sent around letters to those who hosted an event for 2016 and would like to host again for 2017. If they could get it back to me as soon as possible it would be greatly appreciated as we will be working on the 2017 Roster of Social Events in the coming months in order to get it into the December Newsletter. Also, if you have never hosted an event before but would like to give it a try or have a new idea, we would love to hear from you. Having new and different events helps to keep things interesting. Also if you would like to join the Entertainment Committee then please give us a call. We meet the first Thursday of each month except for the July and August when we take a break!

When hosting an event you have to fill out what is called a Form A Sheet and a Form B sheet. I try to make sure that the hosts have these sheets but if you do not get one, I have posted two brown envelopes in the Village Centre on the Bulletin Board that is designated for Board Items.

It is just to the right of the kitchen. Please take one if you need extra.

We would like to thank all the people who came out for the Road Rally. Your support and enthusiasm are greatly appreciated. Saturday, August 20th was hot but no rain to dampen the event as most drove around in their golf carts, keeping cool with lots of "refreshments"!!

The winning team was Doreen Brydon, Jane Eichler, Liz and John Laurie. Their names will be engraved on the road rally trophy. Second place team was Joyce Bell, Gwen Clarke, June Eden and Pat Wills. Tied for third were three teams. They were: Glen and Dianne Whaley, Carol and Dave Stewart; Kitty and Jim Crompton, Margaret Bennett and Maureen Nethercott; and Bonnie and Cliff Zeigler and Pat and Doug Foell. Many door prizes also were won. The Road Rally was conducted entirely in Morningside Village except for a little jaunt into Stage 5!

Thank you also to all who helped clean up and to the diners who did a fantastic job cleaning up their own tables. In the kitchen we had so many helpers so thank you to everyone who helped in the kitchen and who helped serve the food. It helped immensely.
